

CALIFORNIA HISTORIC CIVIL ENGINEERING LANDMARK

THE TIOGA PASS ROAD

Pictures of the Dedication ceremony at the Highway 120, Dodge Point, Lee Vining Grade plaque location
Saturday, October 12, 2002

A.S.C.E.
TIOGA PASS ROAD
DEDICATION
10/12/02

Set up at Dodge Point.

Dodge Point on Lee Vining Grade and Creek.

Ready for dedication

Guests.

Jim Campbell, ASCE Desert Branch President from Bishop and Master of Ceremonies.

Dedication guests. Standing room only.

Lou Wadsworth – retired Caltrans resident engineer – Lee Vining Grade, 1965 – 1970.

Jack Pulver, ASCE District 13 representative from Stockton, CA.

Krispy Kreme donuts & hungry guests.

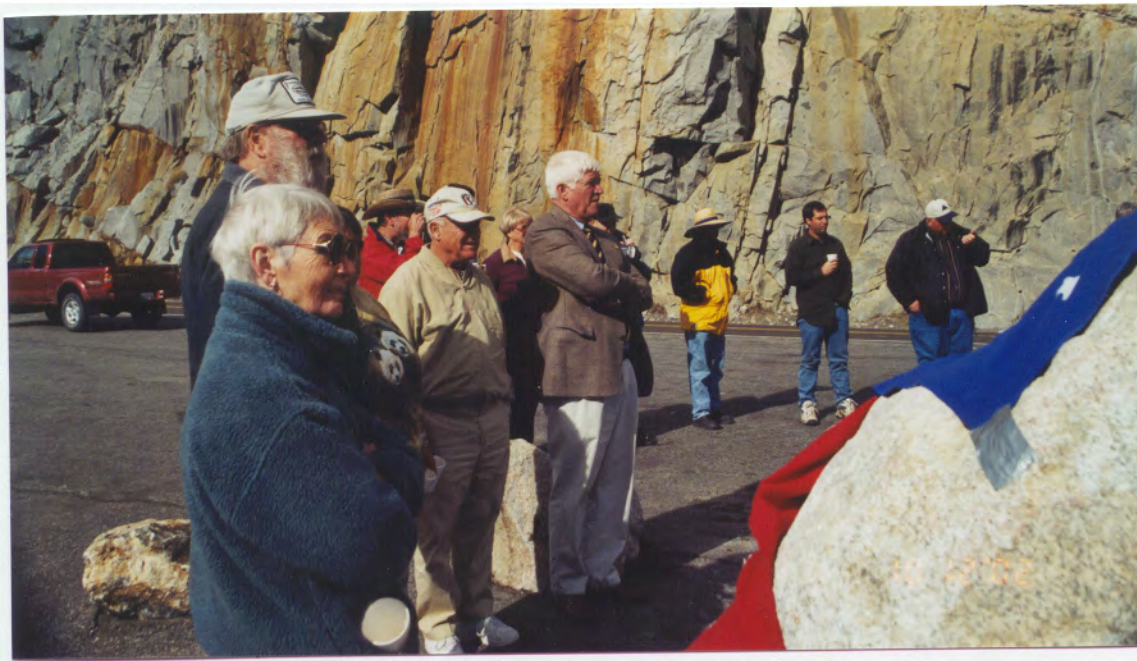

Unveiling plaque.

Official commemoration October 12, 2002.

ASCE Officials & Guests.

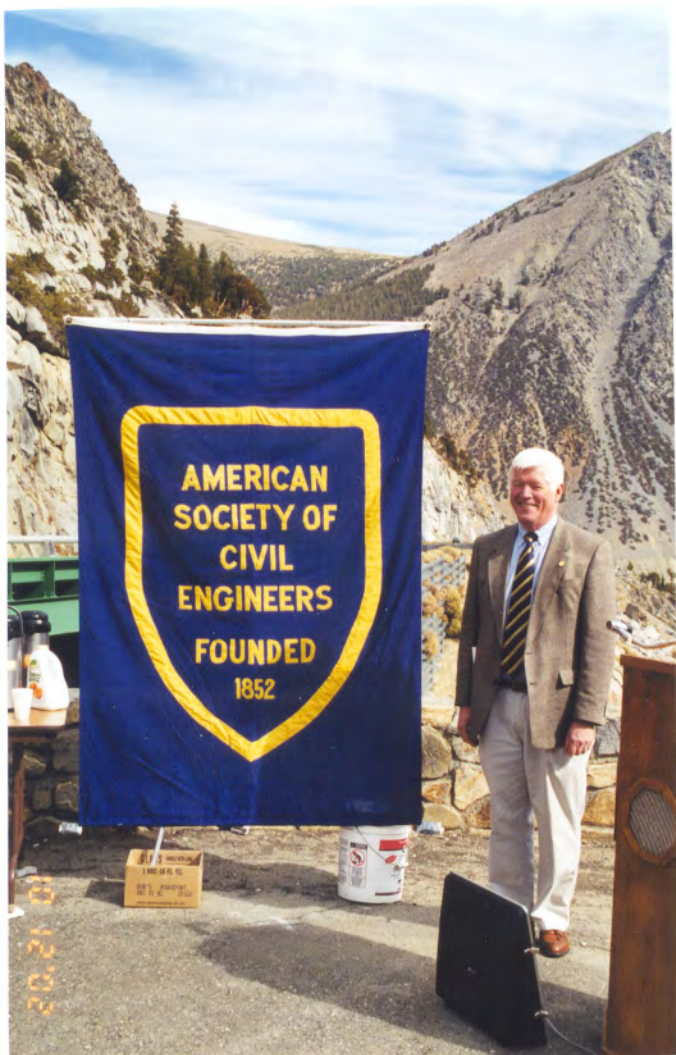

Guests.

Lou Wadsworth, right, & his Caltrans field men assistants. Viaduct bridge designer at far left.

Sundial used to time the speakers.

Jack Pulver & our banner. Society is 150 years old this year.

Charles Kavenagh, ASCE History & Heritage Committee Chairman from the San Francisco Section.

Young Caltrans engineers talking to Lou Wadsworth. Note waterfall on Lee Vining Creek.

Lou and his project assistants & wives.

Sidehill viaduct just down grade from Dodge Point & our plaque. Lee Vining Peak beyond & Lee Vining Creek at right.

Ellery Lake upgrade from Dodge Point toward Tioga Pass.

Aspen trees in Lee Vining Creek have turned yellow gold
after first fall freeze.

Looking upgrade on Lee Vining
grade to Tioga Pass. Tioga Peak in the center.

